Dominican May Turn to Juan Bosch

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Juan Bosch, self-styled spokesman for the Dominican Republic's underprivileged, may soon have a second chance as president of his troubled nation.

Cheering delegates nominated the 56-year-old writer-philosopher Sunday as the presidential candidate of the Dominican Revolutionary party in the June elections.

Bosch, whose followers triggered the 1965 revolution in which the United States intervened, is considered the front runner in a contest expected to include at least three other major presidential aspirants.

Bosch couches his speeches in simple folksy language that appeals to the common man.

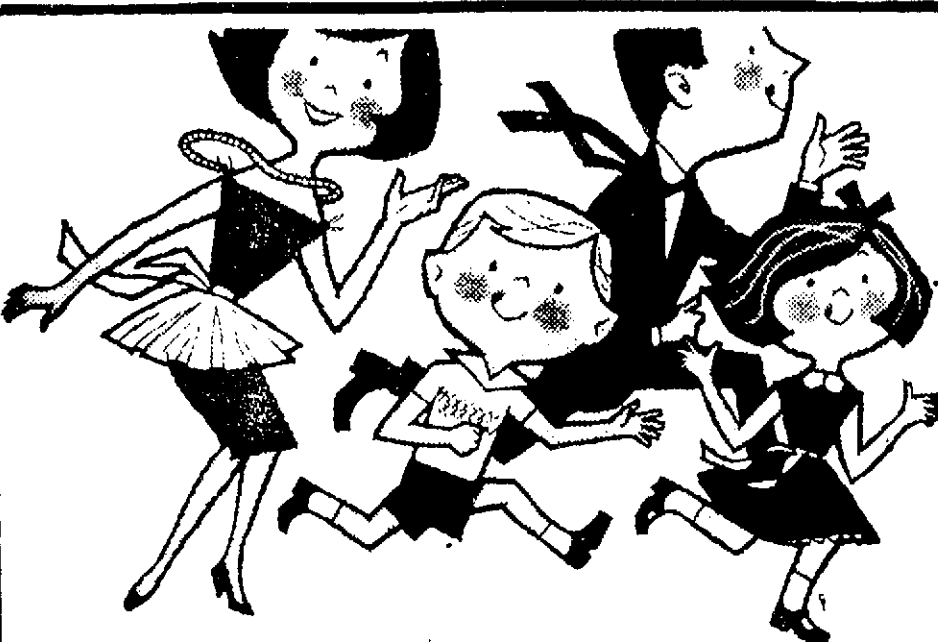

His upper-class critics see distortion, bitterness and vindictiveness woven skillfully into his oratory. But in the neighborhood grocery stores, bars and fruit stands, the ordinary folk cluster transfixed around their radios when Bosch speaks.

"Juan Bo' lo sabe todo — Juan Bosch knows it all," they say reverently.

But the political machine Bosch had helped create became enmeshed in a factional power struggle. Just seven months after he took over, a military coup forced him back into exile. There were no demonstrations or protests on his behalf.

Last spring followers of Bosch touched off bitter fighting in an attempt to bring him back from exile in Puerto Rico.

Why buy a low-priced car when you can get a high-priced car for the same money?

Especially when you can get a big Catalina. With a wheelbase a good two inches longer, interiors a lot roomier and a 389 cu. in. V-8 out front that gives you at least 50 more standard horsepower. Along with typically Pontiac virtues like the bold, split-grille styling, Wide-Track ride and handling, and a resale value the record books show is consistently up there with the leaders. And, of course, a package of seven standard safety items like padded visors and dash. Come in and look over our Catalina. Drive it. Price it. You'll know what we mean when we say if you're spending about $3000 for a new car and not getting a Pontiac, something's wrong.

HELEN HELP US!
by Helen Bottel

Grandpa Has Last Laugh At Sex-Obsessed Generation

We oldsters are (secretly) laughing ourselves sick at the last two or three generations. Why all of a sudden does everybody want to turn his soul inside out and invite the world to help him pick the cooties out of the seam? There is no "new morality" or anything close to it. The priests' sons "Lay with the women" who came to be temple a way back in early Testament days — and long before that! And if Grandpa and Grandpa were indiscreet enough to recite the golings on in their day you young brats would fall over in a dead faint. I was born around the turn of the century in a mid-west farm state, grew up in the country and have lived "everywhere" since.

This obsession with conscience all of a sudden is an awful sickness on the part of the present generation. We are a nation of peasants (ancestry) and peasants were obsessed with earthly things — blood, manure, sex. These they understood. Just moving to America did not change that. Sex was, always has been, and will continue to be simply a matter of opportunity. And when Grandpa, Grandma and I (A Grandpa too) were kids there was plenty of opportunity. Every country school had its "sex rings" — kids going home through the woods, shortcuts through the cornfields or past Old Man Smith's barn. And practically every small town had its approved abortionist (usually one of the local doctors).

The difference today is these matters (considered private in those days) were not the prime topic of conversation, as they are now. All this yakity-yak is not going to change anything. Sex is an impulse and logic takes wings when kids get to be about 14. All this talk inflames them more.

Illegitimacy won't go down because it's discussed at home and at school. By bringing all this to the level of table talk, kids use sex to fight their parents. It's also an outlet for surplus energy — and kids today are overfed, underworked and overprotected. They naturally have a hell of a lot of "surplus" All they are looking for is a p.p. (approval or disapproval); certainly not advice. Every fool has a right to ruin his own life and advice isn't going to even slow him down. — Laughing Grandpa

Dear Grandpa: I certainly agree that there's no "new morality." (And the Kinsey Institute agrees with us both). For the first time in history, we Americans can discuss out loud and in print what once we barely whispered, (though percentage-wise it happened almost as often). And so we're a little like the boy who has just learned four letter words and must scribble them all over walls to show his knowledge. Naturally, this gets the information around fast unless somebody whitewashes the walls, and nobody's fast with the brush these days.

You'll agree, won't you, that most people don't yet operate on the "take what you want when you want it" philosophy — which is, of course, why sex is still hot news. If everybody indulged, there'd be no one left to scandalize.

I hope we never con ourselves into believing that sex without love is the norm. . . But by constantly reporting a "new morality" that isn't really here we run the risk of creating it.

I DON'T agree with you about the uselessness of advice to teenagers. They want yardsticks, standard, fair rules. Parents who shrug off responsibility with, "Sex is natural and they won't listen anyway" are, in effect, handing a high-power ed ear to a kid who has had no driver training. Even adults profit by the right kind of advice, and a lot of "fools" have wised up by getting it in time. — H.

Nicklaus Right on Top of the Leaders

Central Is Winner in UA Relays

By KEN ALYTA
Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tommy Jacobs and Gay Brewer, a couple of outsiders, were overshadowed by the menacing, dominant figure of Jack Nicklaus going into today's three-way, 18-hole playoff for the green coat that goes to the Masters champion.

"I've blown three chances," the defending champion growled after finishing the regulation 72 holes in a tie with Jacobs and Brewer at 288, even par for the demanding Augusta National Course.

Jacobs and Brewer had already finished and were sitting nervously on the sidelines Sunday when Nicklaus missed by about two inches on a 25-foot birdie putt on the 18th that would have won it for the Golden Bear.

When it just missed, Jacobs and Brewer suddenly — and just for today — were elevated to The Big Three. The exclusive club more normally composed of Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player has shared the title in this classic seven of the last eight years.

Palmer made his bid and failed, finishing two strokes back. Player never was in it. The playoff was scheduled for 1:45 p.m., (EST) with national television (CBS) of the concluding holes starting three hours later. In the event of a further tie, sudden death will be in effect strike in the first hole.

The winner will get a check for $20,000. The runnerup will receive $12,500 and third place will be worth $8,300. The total purse was $152,880, an increase of $15,205 over last year.

Nicklaus, gunning for a third Masters title and a record second straight, has had rounds of 68-76-72-72. Brewer has turned in scores of 74-72-72-70 and Jacobs has scored 75-71-70-72.

Baseball in Atlanta for First Time

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Major league baseball officially comes to the Deep South Tuesday night and Atlanta Braves' Manager Bobby Bragan has adopted a "why not a pennant, too?" type of attitude on the eve of the opening game.

Praves officials report that about 45,000 tickets have been sold in advance for the opening game with Pittsburgh. The $18 million stadium seats 55,000.

With a smile of optimism, Bragan said he sees the National League pennant chase as a six-team race, "and we're one of the teams."

His opening opponent, Pittsburgh, also is one of the teams, he said. The others are Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Cincinnati and San Francisco.

But Bragan, anxious to bring a World Series to the South in a hurry, eyes Cincinnati as the team to beat. "I pick us and Cincinnati to battle it out for the pennant," he said.

Porker Golfers Defeat Centenary

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Mike McCutcheon of Arkansas beat Centenary's Dale Hofkins 6 and 5 Saturday as the Razorbacks posted a 5-1 golf victory.

Other results: Larry Stephens, Centenary, def. David McCauley 1 up. Hal Sharber, Arkansas, def. Terry Stephens 4 and 3. James McCord, Arkansas, def. Darrell Long 3 and 1. McCutcheon-McCauley def. Hofkins-L. Stephens 4 and 3. Sharber-McCord def. Long-T. Stephens 4 and 3.

Patriots Sign Third Player

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Patriots of the American Football League have signed a third member of the 1965 Southern Mississippi held opponents to 161 2 yards per game.

The Patriots signed quarterback and defensive back Vic Purvis as a free agent during the weekend. Defensive tackle John Mangum and linebacker Doug Satcher agreed to terms earlier.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Little Rock Central, Russellville, Clarksville and Pea Ridge scored repeat victories Saturday in the 16th annual University of Arkansas high school relays.

Ten records were bettered in the four divisions.

Central won 11 events and set four records in winning the Class AAA division with 123 points. Fayetteville was second with 104 points and Springdale third with 25.

Russellville piled up 107½ points to win the Class AA followed by Benton at 58½. Harrison 44, Siloam Springs 36, Bentonville 30 and Rogers 5.

Clarksville had 85 points in Class A followed by Paris with 54 points, Des Arc 39, Gravette 36, Atkins 30, Berryville 21, Alma 10, Lamar 6, Ozark 3 and Booneville 1.

Pea Ridge piled up 74 points to nudge second place Prairie Grove with 61 points in the B division. Harding Academy had 60 points, Hector 39, Decatur 24, Farmington 19 and Gentry 8.

Central set a record in the mile relay with a 3:23.4 clocking. Three Tiger stars set individual marks. They were Richard Polk in the 120 high hurdles (14.4), Delbert Brooks in the mile run (4:29.5) and Don Robb in the 880 run (1:58.5).

Russellville broke the Class AA 440-yard relay record with a 4:39 and Jim Kelly of Benton high jumped 5-11, erasing the former mark by three-fourths of an inch.

In Class A Gary Green of Paris won three events, breaking the record with a 50.1 clocking in the 440 dash. Green also won the 100 in 10.2 and the 220 in 22.5.

Other records in Class A went to Bill Sorrells of Atkins with a 12-7 pole vault and John Cunningham of Des Arc with a 22-5½ broad jump.

Gary Boyd of Pea Ridge set the only Class B mark, a 21 flat in the 180 low hurdles.

Rice, Arkansas Lead in Tennis

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rice and Arkansas lead the Southwest Conference tennis and golf team races which have only two more weeks to run before the conference meet that decides the individual winners.

Rice, the defending champion in tennis, is behind in the schedule compared to the others but tops the race with a 6-0 record. The Owls have five matches to play.

Rice meets Texas at Austin Thursday.

In golf Arkansas leads by a half point with three matches to go. Texas, in second place, is in the position of having beaten the leader but still unable to take over the lead itself. A 3½-2½ loss to Texas A&M was the reason.

Hawks Win in Pro Play But 76ers Lose

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The St. Louis Hawks have scraped themselves off the floor in the National Basketball Association playoffs. The Philadelphia 76ers are still trying to figure out what hit them.

St. Louis fought off elimination in the Western Division playoffs Sunday night by outlasting Los Angeles 112-100 on the Lakers' court.

The Boston Celtics pushed Philadelphia to the brink in the Eastern Division finals Sunday afternoon by erasing an eight-point deficit in the fourth quarter and stunning the 76ers in overtime 114-108.

Tuesday night St. Louis, trailing Los Angeles 3-2 in their best-of-seven series, entertains the tired Lakers while Philadelphia, down 3-1, tries to rebound at home against the Celtics.

"I can't believe it, man. I can't believe it," Wilt Chamberlain muttered after the Celtics rallied behind Sam Jones and John Havlicek to overtake the 76ers before a screaming crowd of 13,909 at the Boston Garden.

"It will be a long, hard road for us now."

The 76ers must win three in a row to make the final round. Two straight will do the job for the Hawks, who bounced back on the scoring of Len Wilkens and Cliff Hagan.

The Lakers, showing the strain of back-to-back games more than the determined Hawks, fell behind by 10 points in the third quarter and couldn't catch the visitors. Jerry West led Los Angeles with 31 points.

Sam Jones scored nine points and Havlicek eight in the Celtics' fourth quarter spurt. Then, after K.C. Jones' free throw with 39 seconds to go tied it at 100-100, forcing the overtime.

Sam Jones and Havlicek hit for four more points apiece as Boston pulled away in the extra period.

Arkansans Win Four Places

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Four Arkansans won places Saturday in the 38th annual Southwestern Relays with Jett Lansdale's 241-3½ javelin toss leading the way.

Lansdale, of Arkansas State, placed second in the event, hurling the javelin only one inch less than Jack Dyer of Louisiana State.

Another ASC athlete, Jerald Spencer, was fourth in the high jump with a leap of 6-6.

Two Arkansas State Teachers College performers also earned fourth place honors, Jim Tarkenton in the 440 run with a 49.1 and Jody Musgrove in the 440 intermediate hurdles with a 55.8.

The President Opens Baseball Season Today

By FRANCES LEWINE

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson got a relief pitcher to open the American League baseball season in Washington today so he could stay on and enjoy a post-Easter holiday at his Texas ranch.

He set no time for his return to the capital.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey got the job of throwing out the first ball at the Washington-Cleveland opener.

Johnson kept a relaxed schedule, including a bit of desk work, boating, church-going and looking over the spring-green acres of his LBJ Ranch.

He told reporters to go "kick up your heels" in San Antonio, the press headquarters 65 miles away, indicating he didn't want them to zero in on his activities during his ranch vacation.

The President's press spokesmen had no comment on events in Viet Nam, where internal politics and anti-American demonstrations have brought military operations almost to a standstill.

There was no comment, either, on demonstrations by about 50 pickets who staged an Easter vigil outside the LBJ Ranch Sunday to protest the war in Viet Nam.

Grand Prix to Draw 3 Champions

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — Three former champions will be here this weekend for the 1966 Grand Prix Grand Prix sports car races.

Home Rade of Dallas will be back to try for his second consecutive triumph. He will be joined by 1964 champion Dave Morgan of Tulsa and 1959 champion Bob Alyward of Wichita, Kan.

Rader will drive an improved version of the Lotus MK 30, the car he drove to the title last year.

Morgan will drive a Zerech Special and Alyward will compete in his Italian-made Tip 61 Maserati, equipped with a Ford engine.

Seventy-three drivers from more than eight states have already entered the various classes of competition and more entries are expected before the first race Saturday.

Registration begins Friday at 3 p.m. Inspections, a driver's meeting, practice and qualification runs will precede the first race at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

The races will be held on the 2.6-mile court at the Stuttgart airstrip, about six miles north of here on Arkansas 11. The course has six right turns and one left turn, forcing drivers to slow to 25 and 35 m.p.h.

Many of the larger cars are capable of speeds in the 175 m.p.h. range on the straightaway.

The races, sanctioned by the Sports Car Club of America, are sponsored by the Stuttgart Jaycees.

Verdict on Braves Is Believed Near

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The verdict in Wisconsin's antitrust battle with baseball now is expected to come only hours before the former Milwaukee Braves are scheduled to open in Atlanta Tuesday.

White-haired Circuit Judge Elmer W. Roller, who worked from morning until past midnight Easter Sunday preparing his decision, said he did not expect to be ready to announce the ruling until Tuesday morning.

The State of Wisconsin is asking that the Braves be ordered to return immediately to Milwaukee unless and until expansion is assured. Should it win its suit, the verdict could leave the National League wrapped in a legal web of epic complications at the very outset of the season.

The 38-day antitrust trial, with more than a million words written into the record, ended last Wednesday with a dramatic offer by the state to drop its demand for the Braves return if the National League would promise Milwaukee an expansion team not this year but next.

Rumors of a settlement since have come and gone. Nothing of substance has surfaced.

Baseball Commissioner William Eckert said last week the Wisconsin offer would be studied. He said nothing over the weekend. In both Milwaukee and New York, there were uniform denials that any contacts toward a compromise had been made.

Only the Senate has the power to try impeachments.

Red Wings in Stunning Hockey Tilt

CHICAGO (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings, humbled and walked upon by the Chicago Black Hawks all season long, erupted vengeance Sunday to take the favorites' role in their Stanley Cup semifinal playoff series.

After losing to Chicago 11 times during the regular season against one victory and two ties, and dropping the opener of the best-of-seven series, 2-1, the Red Wings hammered the Hawks 7-0 Sunday.

The victory not only squared the series at one game each but had a national television audience wondering how Chicago could have manhandled Detroit throughout the season.

"All I can say is it's a long time coming," said Detroit Manager Coach Sid Abel. "We didn't win here all year long and I guess we were due."

The scene now shifts to Detroit where the next two games will be played Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Assuming the Wings, who seldom lose at home, can capture these two contests, they'll return to Chicago next Sunday afternoon. If Detroit fails to wrap it up then, the two teams will go back to Detroit April 19 for what could be the final in the series.

In the other semifinal set, the Montreal Canadiens take a 2-0 advantage to Toronto for Tuesday night's game against the embattled Maple Leafs.

The Canadiens completed a two-game sweep on their home ice Saturday night by blanking the Leafs 2-0.

The teams meet again in Toronto Thursday night.

the University Up Scholarships

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The faculty committee of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference has approved a raise from $225 to $500 in athletic scholarships and altered the setup of the annual AIC basketball tournament.

Beginning this fall AIC scholarships will provide tuition, fees and $500 to be applied to room and board costs.

Under new rules the first four games of the AIC basketball tournament will be played at four sites around the state. Then the quarterfinals will go to Pine Bluff for the remainder of the tournament.

Previously all tournament games were played at Pine Bluff.

Moccasin also is eligible for the Derby but she'll likely side-step that race in favor of the Kentucky Oaks for 3-year-old fillies on May 6.

Eastern-based Derby nominees get another chance this Saturday to show whether they are worthy of challenging Graustark in the Run for the Roses. They'll meet in the one mile of the Gotham at Aqueduct with Pricess Gem, another highly regarded filly, a likely starter against the Max Hirsch-trained entry of Indulto and Buffle and the Eddie Neley-trained duo of Impressive and Stupendous.

Corbett Was Mistaken for a Burglar

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The bullet that gravely wounded James J. Corbett, Louisiana State University athletic director, was fired when he was mistaken for a prowler, police report.

Chief David Keyser said it happened Thursday night when Corbett, a heart patient for several years, stumbled to a motel window seeking help after being stricken with severe chest pains while driving.

Keyser said the occupant of the motel room, O. S. Coleman, about 45, of Sorrento, La., fired a 22-caliber derringer out of the window when he saw a hand reach in.

Corbett said his chest pains were so severe it was a moment before he realized what had happened, though the impact of the bullet knocked him down. He then made it back to his car and tried to drive on.

The auto swerved off the street and hit a tree.

Moccasin also is eligible for the Derby but she'll likely side-step that race in favor of the Kentucky Oaks for 3-year-old fillies on May 6.

Moccasin, however, turned in a disappointing performance, losing by four lengths as she finished fourth in a six-furlong race "with Stealaway," stablemate of Graustark, winning in 1:10 1-5. It was the Claiborne Farm filly's first start since last November when she took the Gardenia for her eighth straight triumph.

Only the Senate has the power to try impeachments.

Grasutark More Firmly Entrenched

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
Graustark was more firmly entrenched than ever as the Kentucky Derby favorite today. But some of the luster had worn off Moccasin, 1965 Horse of the Year and champion 2-year-old filly.

The long-striding son of Ribot, out of action since being sidelined two months ago with a hof injury, came back to competition last Saturday at Keeneland in superb condition.

It was only a six-furlong race compared to the Derby distance of 1¼ miles and the competition in a belated race was nothing to shout about.

But Graustark, with Braulio Baeza in the saddle, won by four lengths as he stepped the distance in 1:09 3-5, then went another eighth of a mile to complete seven furlongs in 1:22 3-5. He eased up the mile in 1:37 — all of which pleased owner John Galbreath and trainer Loyd Gentry very much

The Alarm Clock Was Really Invented in the Middle Ages for Use in the Monasteries

Militant Irish Plan Hunger Strike

By GODFREY ANDERSON

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP)—Eighteen young Irish militants planned to start a hunger strike today as their nation celebrated the 50th anniversary of the Easter uprising.

The youths said they would fast from noon today until 3:45 p.m. Saturday, recalling the duration of the bloody 1916 rebellion crushed by the British. The uprising eventually led to the creation of the Irish Republic.

Ireland has no cause to celebrate, the hunger strikers said. They accused the Irish government of betraying revolutionary ideals by letting Gaelic die out and by tolerating Ireland's partition and economic dependence on Britain.

The hunger strikers included several Dublin University students and six supporters from Belfast in the north. They are members of a fringe organization of the Gaelic revival movement called Misneach — Courage.

Inside Dublin's main post office, Joe Clarke, 84, revisited the place where he participated in the uprising and laid a wreath at the foot of the Cuchulainn statue, which is dedicated to a legendary figure symbolizing Ireland. The wreath carried the words, "To the forgotten ideals of 1916."

Vitamin B May Be Answer To Spinal Birth Defect

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A mother asks the meaning of "spina bifida." This birth defect is fairly common and is the result of a failure of the bones forming the spinal canal to close at some point in the vertebral column.

The seriousness of this condition varies widely. It depends on (1) whether the failure is in the front of the bone canal (often fatal) or in the back, (2) how high in the vertebral column the defect is (generally speaking, the lower the better), (3) whether the cystic outpouching is large or small, (4) whether it contains part of the spinal cord (often fatal) or only spinal fluid, and (5) whether the outpouching is covered by a thin membrane (often fatal) or by a full thickness of skin.

In some infants the defect is so slight it is found only by accident when an X ray of the spine is taken for some other condition. Such a defect is no handicap at all.

On the other hand a child with a knot, well-covered with skin and the size of a hen's egg or even larger that protrudes from the lower portion of the back, will usually develop normally. Such a child needs to be protected from injury to the cyst until about the age of 3 or when toilet training is complete.

Then, as a further protection, the defect can be repaired surgically.

Some authorities believe that if a woman gets sufficient vitamin B throughout her pregnancy there is little chance of this type of developmental defect occurring. This is especially true of women who have morning sickness with their pregnancy because vomiting depletes their supply of this vitamin.

Q—My grandson is in first grade. He loves school but his teacher reports that if she looks at him he cries. His mother took him to school one day and when she left the room he cried. What could cause this?

A—It is possible that too much has been expected of this boy and that his fear of not doing well has gotten him down. He may need a more relaxed home atmosphere. His self-confidence must be built up by giving him tasks that he is able to accomplish and praising his success. Tasks that are beyond his present stage of development should be avoided and his failures passed off in a casual manner. If this doesn't bring about a rapid improvement he may have to have psychiatric help.

Stephen Day, for whom the popular type face is named, was a locksmith and not a printer, although he is popularly credited with being the first printer in the early English American colonies. He did set up the first printing plant in the English colonies in 1638 and began publishing books. The plant eventually became the forerunner of the Harvard University Press, considered the oldest in the United States.

Last week's columns wound up with some hands showing the use of the suit preference. We will continue with another hand from "Bid Better, Play Better" that illustrates the use of this valuable but much abused convention.

West opens the three of spades against South's three no-trump contract. East takes his ace and returns the suit. Declarer's jack loses to West's queen. West leads back the ten spot and South is in with the king. He leads a diamond. East is back in the lead with the ace of diamonds and has to decide between a club lead and a heart lead.

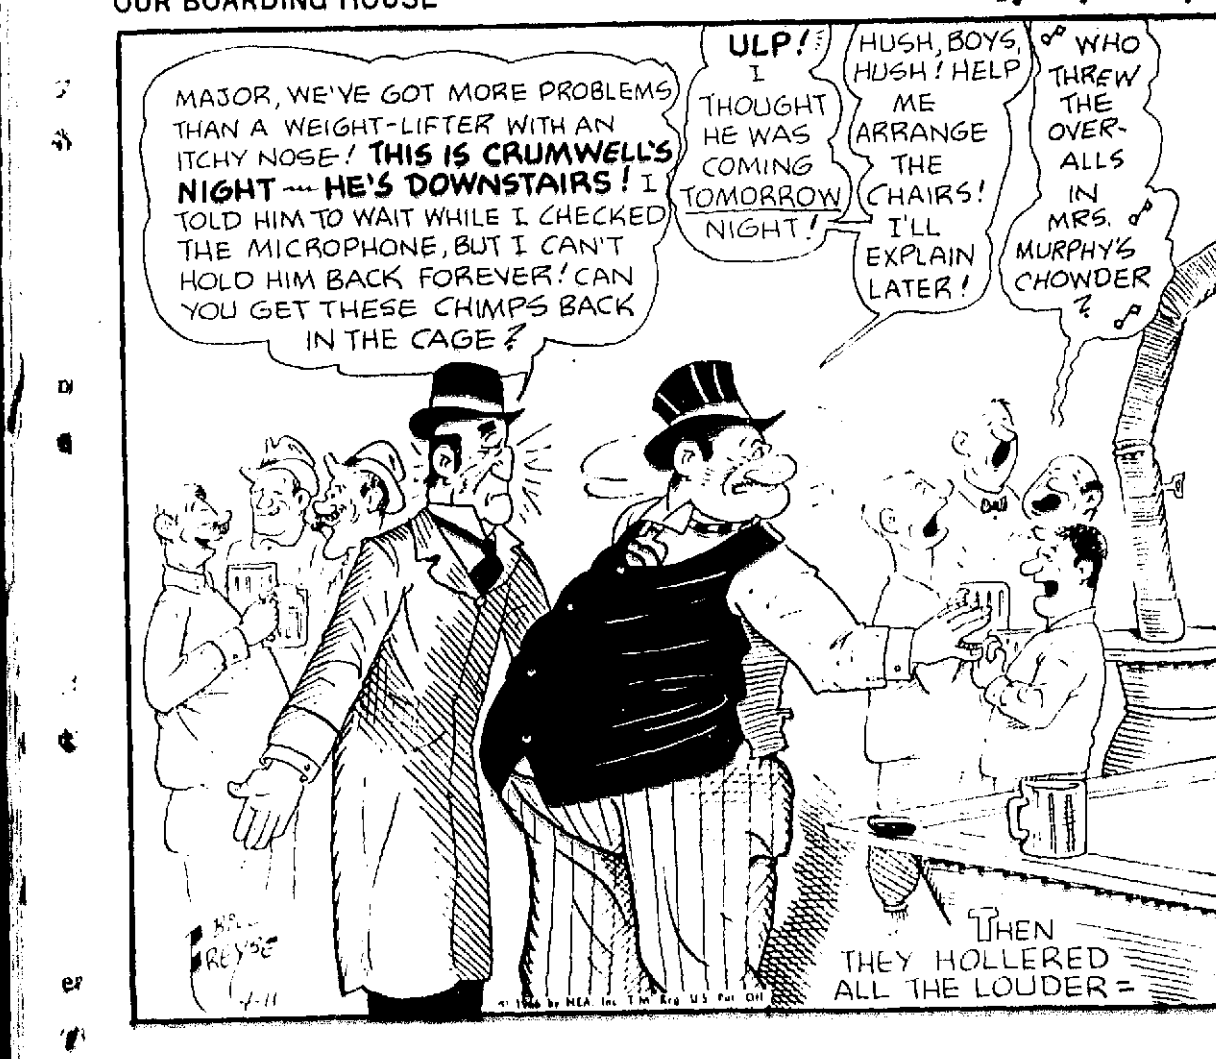

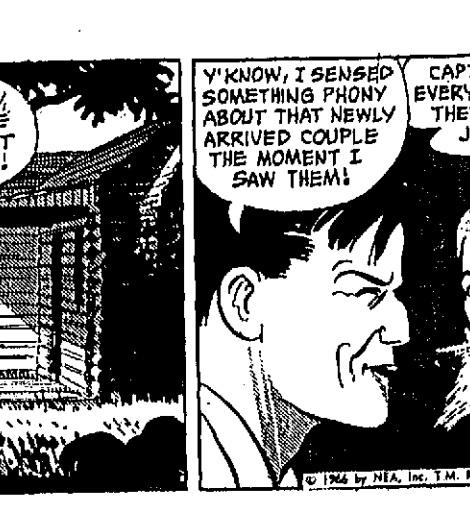

As you can see, with a club return South makes an over-trick. With a heart return he is down two.

If West had returned the deuce of spades it would have been easy for East to read it as a suit preference request for a club lead. Should the ten spot return be read as a suit preference call for a heart?

Suppose West had started with only four spades. He would have had to play the ten back since otherwise dummy's nine could hold the trick.

On the other hand if West had started with only four spades, South would surely have played the king of spades, not the jack at trick two. That is, South would surely have played the king if he were a good player. Sometimes it is harder to operate against a bad player than against a good one but we assume everyone is a good player unless otherwise noted.

So good player East assumes that good player South started with only three spades and that good player West led the ten of spades as a suit preference signal, and leads a heart.

On the other hand it would have started with only four spades, South would surely have played the king of spades, not the jack at trick two. That is, South would surely have played the king if he were a good player. Sometimes it is harder to errate against a bad player than against a good one. So we assume everyone is a good player unless otherwise noted.

Hempstead Woodland Owners to Attend Meet Tuesday

The group of dead pine above could have been saved with proper management. These trees were crowded and weakened by lack of moisture, and thus attacked by the ips beetle, whose hatching process eventually kills the tree.

With the proposed construction of two pulpwood mills in Hempstead and Little River counties, making money from woodlands appear very good for farmers, says Monroe Samuel, one of the Hemp-stead SC Dist. supervisors.

Pulpwood management fits in with lumber logs, veneer logs and even pole piling, providing a diversified source of timber income.

By planting valuable pine in 1958 this shows eroded land converted to valuable timber. Woodland owners in Hempstead are in a better position to make a good return on their investment now that markets for woods products have improved, says Max Bolar, forester with the SCS who emphasized proper forestry management.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. a program on woodland has been arranged by the Hempstead County Soil Conservation Supervisors. The meeting will be held upstairs in the new Post Office and Federal Buildings. Carrying out the discussion will be Max Bolar of the Soil Conservation Service, Little Rock, Buster Denton, Delight, district forester and Cecil Biddle, manager of the local University of Arkansas Experiment Station.

With the coming of new industry to this area such as paper mills, Hempstead forests will play an even greater part in the economic life of this area, says George Brown of the SCS.

Thus it is important for every woodland owner in Hempstead to attend this meeting April 12 and learn ways and means to protect their woodlands as well as to increase production.

The beginning of young pine replacing a deadened weed tree. The large weed tree has been injected with 1 cc of 2,4-D chemical every three inches around the base. This kills the tree and allows young pines to grow.

The Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District have two injectors for rent to landowners, said Sloman Goodlett, chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

What About Hope's Old Post Office?

The federalists on Sunday dedicated for Hope a new Federal Building and Post Office. We opposed it, delaying construction for the better part of a year — but, as bureaucrats usually do, they built it anyway.

Of course it's not paid for — it's just another monument to the astronomical debt that the Washington spenders have run up since the shooting stopped in World War II. Which is the reason this writer opposed it. And a majority of Hope citizens backed him up with their signatures on a petition. The next Election Day proved the petition was perfectly valid. This writer and his newspaper stayed out of the campaign, neither contributing money nor even voting — as my friend the then Congressman Oren Harris knows — yet Mr. Harris, a native Hempstead county son with a long and distinguished record in the House, lost the City of Hope in that election.

All this is water under the bridge — and now we have a new Post Office still to be paid for. Which reminds me: What about the old Post Office that's already paid for?

It's still one of the largest and best-constructed buildings in Hope. What will the government do with it? I hear talk that the federalists want to give it to the City of Hope for public use. That doesn't suit me as a taxpayer, and if it doesn't set any better with you I suggest you start making a lot of noise . . . right now.

The federal government seized tax-paying private property on which to build the new Post Office, which not only isn't paid for but represents a substantial loss to the taxable property base of Hempstead County — therefore it seems only fair that the old Post Office be sold to private citizens and returned to the local tax pool.

It isn't in the nature of bureaucrats to do this, but public pressure on both the federalists and City Hall might persuade them against their will.

I'm getting tired of seeing tax-exempt property expand while thousands of private citizens pay through the nose.

Doctor Quits Lush Area for Small One

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — "The thought that maybe I could be of greater use somewhere else began to haunt me," a surgeon said as he explained why he is leaving a well-established practice to go to a small town.

Dr. Walter A. Mendyka, 42, leaves Tuesday for Machias, Maine, population 3,500, to practice where he believes there is a great need.

"I guess the idea was born during the reign of Pope John XXIII," said Mendyka, who has been practicing in Cleveland since 1956.

"As I learned more about him and his works, I got the idea that I should do more to share with others the good things God has given me and my family."

The rest of the Mendykas — children and his wife, Frances — will leave their 12-room house and follow him to Maine after the school year.

Dr. Mendyka, a staff member of St. John's Hospital, said he learned of the need for a surgeon in Machias last November. He and his wife decided on the move Christmas Eve and told their children Christmas Day.

"We didn't know how the children would react," Mrs. Mendyka said. "They accepted it cheerfully."

Mendyka visited the town — 30 miles east of Bangor and 25 miles southwest of Franklin D. Roosevelt's retreat at Campobello — and liked the people, the town and the 36-bed hospital, which he said is one of the most modern he has seen.

Dr. Mendyka said only about half the beds in the hospital are used because people in the area have to travel 80 miles or more for surgical care.

About leaving their parents, other relatives and friends, Mrs. Mendyka said: "We'll miss them all. But this is the price we will pay for the satisfaction of a gain."

Federal Building Dedicated

— Hope Star Photos
The Hon. W. M. McMillan, Assistant Postmaster General of Washington, D.C. is shown making an address at yesterday's official dedication of the new $325,000 Hope Post Office and Federal Building.

Postmaster A. D. Brannan opened the ceremonies and Judge Lyle Brown was master of ceremonies.

Others on the program were the Rev. B. J. Willhite, Mayor John B. Gardner Jr., and Randolph Jackson, regional director of GSA, Dallas.

The middle photo shows Judge Oren Harris making the dedication address. Mr. Harris was instrumental in getting the new structure for Hope while serving as Congressman.

Bottom photo shows Congressman James W. Trimble of the Third District addressing the crowd. Also on the program were the Yegger High chorus, Boy Scouts, National Guard and the Hope High School Band.

Architects to Meet at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — William J. Conklin of New York will be the featured speaker at the 15th annual Gulf States Regional Conference of the American Institute of Architects here April 13.

Conklin designed the city of Reston, Va., which has a population of about 75,000 persons.

Singer Plans a U.S. Tour

NEW YORK (AP) — Singer Barbara Streisand plans a concert tour of 20 U.S. cities this fall that will bring her more than $1 million.

A spokesman for the 23-year-old star said Thursday that Miss Streisand's concert salary will exceed $50,000 for each of the performances.

Faubus Silent on Secret Pay Raises

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus refused today to discuss the Arkansas Highway Commission's declaration of independence from the governor's office.

The commission, spurred by news stories about unauthorized and illegal pay increases in the department, met Saturday, fired an assistant director, criticized the former director and said that no one, including the governor, would dictate highway policy to the commission.

Faubus said he was in Mississippi turkey hunting Saturday and did not learn about the commission's action until he heard the news Saturday night. Newsmen met with the governor for about 10 minutes today but he snapped, "No comment," to every question about his opinion of the affair.

He did say that he talked Sunday night with the former director, Mack Sturgis, but he refused to say what they discussed.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A flurry of comment was expected today on pay raises given secretly to Highway Department members then canceled as illegal, resulting in the on-the-spot dismissal Saturday of Y. W. Whelchel.

Whelchel, assistant director of the department, said he probably would have more comment today. Earlier he said only a full-fledged, unbiased investigation will uncover the real issues in the controversy.

Gov. Orval Faubus was quoted by an aide Sunday as saying whatever the Highway Commission did in the matter was fine with him. The aide said Faubus planned to be in his office today and may have comment for newsmen.

Former Highway Director Mack Sturgis said Sunday night he hasn't decided whether to issue a statement on the controversy. He declined to comment then.

Whelchel said Sunday he has been planning his future, but he also declined further comment over the weekend.

The commission fired Whelchel on the spot at a meeting here Saturday and tabbed him as the prime mover behind illegal, unauthorized pay raises in the department.

Commission Chairman Wayne Hampton said the investigation of the salary matter would continue and more firings might come.

Insurance Man to Run for Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jess P. Odom, a Little Rock insurance executive, said today that he is definitely interested in making a bid for the governorship.

Odom expressed the desire more than two weeks ago, but his interest blossomed Sunday when Little Rock newspapers carried advertisements which read: "I'm for Jess P. Odom as a candidate for governor."

Space was left for readings to sign their name and they were urged to mail the signed clipping to Odom.

"I am definitely interested," Odom said. "I've had over 300 letters from various parts of the state and many telephone calls since my first announcement."

"That led primarily to the ads that were in yesterday's papers," he said.

Youth Shot Fatally at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Timothy Murphy, 16, of Texarkana died Sunday of a shotgun wound in his chest.

Miller County Sheriff Richard Birtcher said the youth was shot while he and his brothers were shooting at tin cans in the front yard at their home. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Murphy.

Birtcher said a shotgun with a homemade firing pin discharged and struck the youth in the chest. Young Murphy died about 15 minutes later in a Texarkana hospital.

Official Killed at Hot Springs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The superintendent of the Hot Springs municipal sewer system was killed Saturday when a hole in which he was working caved in.

Officers said Lloyd John Halliburton, 55, was killed at the Reynolds Metals Co. plant at Jones Mill, east of here. Witnesses said Halliburton was in an 11-foot hole dug to check the sewer lines.

Ruling Made in Texarkana Plant Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that a contract for a factory building to be financed with Act 9 bonds is a public contract.

The ruling came in suits filed by Weldon Edison and Woodrow Smith against the National Surety Corp.

The cases were consolidated for trial in Miller Circuit Court. Edison and Smith leased equipment to a subcontractor who helped build a plant for the Cooper Tire and Rubber Co. The plant was financed by an Act 9 bond issue approved Feb. 13, 1963, by Texarkana voters.

After the building was completed, Edison obtained a judgment against the subcontractor, General Millwright and Rigging Corp. for $5,587, and Smith a judgment for $1,200 for some equipment they had leased.

The National Surety Corp., bonding firm for the subcontractor, contended that equipment rental was not covered by the bonds except on public contracts. The trial court ruled and the Supreme Court agreed that title to the Cooper plant was vested in the city of Texarkana and the contract was public.

"We cannot imagine anything more public than an election to authorize the issuance of bonds in the amount of $10 million," the Supreme Court said.

In other cases, the Supreme Court:

— Affirmed a $12,963 judgment against the Worth James Construction Co. in favor of the P. B. Price Construction Co. for work performed for the baseline sewer district in Little Rock on a job on which James was the prime contractor and Price the subcontractor and — Reversed an Arkansas Circuit Court ruling that the Guarantee Trust Life Insurance Co. had to pay John B. Koeng, a farmer and duck hunting guide, $100 a month under a policy which insured him against being totally disabled and confined to his home. The company paid Koeng benefits for more than two years after he suffered a heart attack, and then refused to pay anymore, contending that Koeng was no longer disabled under terms of the policy.

— Reversed a Jefferson Chancery Court ruling in a complicated child custody case. Mr. and Mrs. Orville Tubbs were divorced in 1962 when the oldest of their four children was eight. Mrs. Tubbs got custody of the children for the nine school months each year and Tubbs for the three summer months.

Both later remarried and Mrs. Tubbs moved to Huron, Mich. Last summer, while the children were with Tubbs in Pine Bluff, he filed suit asking for an amendment of the custody decree to give him full custody.

Chancellor Joseph Morrison extended Tubbs' custody for nine months and Tubbs enrolled the children in school this year. The Supreme Court said that the children should have been returned to Mrs. Tubbs in September, but that because the school year was near an end, they should remain with the father until June, at which time they are to be returned to Mrs. Tubbs for one full year, with the nine month-three month agreement being resumed in 1967.

The strike spread to Ohio early today.

Picket lines appeared in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Illinois, Kentucky and Alabama. In Washington, a spokesman at UMW headquarters said "there wasn't any sanction" for the walkouts. The spokesman said the situation between the union and the Bituminous Coal Operators Association was unchanged from Friday.

UMW President W.A. Boyle had said then the union "considered itself at liberty to strike at any time."

As late as Sunday afternoon, UMW Vice President George Tiller said he knew nothing of a rank-and-file movement for a strike.

Hays Waiting Before Any Commitment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Arkansas Congressman Brooks Hays says he is waiting to determine the amount of encouragement and support he gets from friends before deciding whether to enter the Arkansas gubernatorial race.

Hays said he expects to announce his decision within 10 days.

"My inclination is to run," he said on a television interview program here, "Capitol Conversation," Sunday. "But I don't want to run unless there is a reasonable chance of success."

Hays, a Democratic congressman from Arkansas from 1942 to 1950, split with some of the leading party members in the state when he took a moderate attitude on Little Rock's racial strife. He was defeated in a write-in campaign by Dale Alford of Little Rock.

Hays said on the program that he and Gov. Orval Faubus went their separate ways after the troop-enforced desegregation of Little Rock Central High School, but recently their relationship has been cordial.

Since leaving Congress Hays has served as president of the Southern Baptist Conference, a visiting professor at Rutgers University and in various advisory capacities for President Johnson.

V. Nam Monks Vow to Keep Disorder Going

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military government braced today for more street violence after the Buddhist leadership vowed to keep up demonstrations until the U.S.-backed junta quits.

"Only when our aspirations are met and our demands satisfied will there be no more demonstrations," the country's most powerful monks declared in a joint statement Sunday.

In militant tones echoing their declarations of political war on the government of the late President Ngo Dinh Diem three years ago, the Buddhists accused the regime of lying, irresponsibility and placing "too many obstacles" in the way of civilian rule.

At a news conference in Saigon, the monks asked the nation to rally behind the "Viet Nam Buddhist Forces," a new anti-government political action organization created by them.

They were asked if a popular civilian government might seek peace with the Communists and order the withdrawal of U.S. forces. Thich Thien Minh, co-leader of the Viet Nam Buddhist Forces and chairman of the militant Buddhist Youth Movement, replied:

Christians Celebrate Easter Sun.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
From humble chapels along the twisting alleyways of old Jerusalem to stately churches adorning broad avenues, the world's Christians — rich and poor, the mighty and the humble — gathered in their places of worship to celebrate Easter Sunday, the climax of Holy Week.

Pilgrims in Jerusalem paid homage in churches ranging from the tiny to ornate Byzantine structures.

A few Protestants knelt in a field outside the city, praying before a cleft in a rock, which they believe is the spot where Christ was buried.

Across the storied valley, on the Mount of Olives, Lutherans held services in the Church of Mary Magdalen near the Garden of Gethsemane.

Some of the pilgrims retraced the steps of Jesus along Via Dolorosa to Calvary.

In jam-packed St. Peter's Square in Rome, Pope Paul VI in his annual Easter message pleaded for an end to war, racism, nationalism, and social conflict.

The Pope termed the celebration of Christ's Resurrection "history's eternal springtime."

If all men listened to the Easter message, he said, he felt confident about "the possibility of this triumph of unity in love and justice, in liberty and progress."

In Fredericksburg, Tex., President Johnson attended services at St. Barnabas Episcopal church with his family. Daughter Luci — who became Catholic, as is her fiancé, Pat Nugent — later attended a Roman Catholic service.

There were peace marches in England and in New York City.
